COTTON MARKET

192 Trading Becomes Lifeless and Uninteresting After Snarp Rise at Opening.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 .- The cotton market was extremely narrow and after opening at an advance of 1 to 3 points became lifeless and uninteresting. Cotton brokers operating for mills appear to be looking for bargains in the spot market, and it depends on how urgent the 14 41% mill needs raw material, whether there will be any aggressive buying in the South. The spot market from time to time receive urgent calls for cotton, but if the price is tco high the manufacturer does not make a profit on his goods, as the make a profit on his goods, as the public is very slow in following advancing prices.

One of the chief aids in helping the bulls to sustain prices in Liverpool today was the higher exchange in the Far East, as this has a tendency to stimulate trade with India. The bad crop reports do not seem to inspire a good class of buying and though reports tell of a half crop in the Southwest, traders seem to be skeptical about following advances and await official reports.

The market late in the afternoon was at about last night's close or was at about last night's close or slightly above. Financial condi-tions seem to dominate the cotton market, and the resultant decreases don stating that the proposed consignment of 1,000,000 bags of coffee to Havre might be taken as definitely arranged by the Brazilian government. According to these advices, other operations are liked of such consignment as this in the market here for some time past the impression being that the shipment of government coffee to Europe would provide collateral for loans abroad in support of Rio cachange or further valorization purchases.

This report may have promoted some scattered buying in the local market, but there was nohing in the trading to indicate any decided broadening of interest and fluctuations were comparatively narrow. After opening unchanged to points above last vear, so points higher, active months sold some 5 to points above last night's closing figures, December touching 7.10 compared with 6.97 at the low point of yesterday and 7.20 the high level of Wednesday.

The reaction in Rio Exchange rates hardly seemed in line with progress in stabilising the milreis, but was offset by higher milreis,

NEW YORK. Aug. 19.—Weakness leveloped early in the stock mar-tet as the short interest sought out soft spots in the industrial ist. Rails railied well before noon weakness. Trading was on a mode est scale and chiefly for professional account. Toward the cless rails were little changed on the day while industrials were generally lower, with a number of declines running from 1 to 5 points. Call money was at 5% per cent throughout.

Exchange. With business still quiet, the fof?" sign exchange market saw a loss of eign exchange market saw a loss of a considerable part of yesterday's gains. Some recovery was shown from early low prices, but in the afternoon sterling was btill off 1% cents at $2.64%, and French franchi-were off 6 points at 7.70 cents. German marks lost 2% points at 1.19 cents, and the other co exchanges were generally lower In contrast to the general trend, the Scandinavian currencies were With its relatively fluctuations in the face of lights trading, this market now reflects; the current uncertainty over the next steps in Germany's attempt to meet her reparation obligations be-fore the month closes.

Commodities. Wheat also showed much uncertainty of trend, prices fluctuating back and forth with technical of-erations exerting considerable in-fluence. At one time December dipped lower, touching $1.16½, but-at a late price of $1.18½ the net gain on the day was one cent. Receipts of winter wheat are now -grain is taking its place. Cottons was very little changed in defi-trading. At 13.37 cents the Decema* er future was off 4 points. Reserve. Despite the season, the Federal Reserve System's proportion of re-serve continues to grow, this week's figure of 65.8 per cent representing a gain of nearly 1 per cent. The steady inflow of gold is still a factor, but the latest statement shows a further reduction of note circulaerately expanded. As between the different regional banks the shows-ing is more irregular than a weels ago, seven reporting recessions in-tion, although deposits are mod five making gains. Interbank bor-rowing amounts to a slightly larges total, increases at Dallas, Minneapolis and Atlanta offsetting a substantial reduction in the case of the heaviest borrower—the bank at Richmond. Recent evidences of easier money at New York are consistent with a good gain in ratio at that center, partly due to in-creased holdings in the gold settlement fund.
